The objective of the Standing Orders is to describe clearly and simply how the council will prepare for meetings and conduct business at meetings. The Standing Orders also set out requirements covering a limited number of related issues without duplicating matters covered by the council's policies and the clerk's job description.

Councillors should note that where Standing Orders contain bold text, they are designed to meet or exceed statutory requirements advised in NALC's model Standing Orders. All these statutory requirements are covered in this document, other than those covered by the council's Financial Regulations.

1. Arrangement of ordinary meetings

- i. The clerk will schedule meetings every other month, usually on the first Tuesday. A minimum of three ordinary meetings must take place each year in addition to the statutory annual meeting.
- ii. The clerk will summon members by e-mailing a signed agenda, including venue and time of meeting, to them at least seven¹ days before meetings take place. On the same day, the clerk will place the signed agenda on the council's website and the village noticeboard.
- iii. The clerk will send the agenda to the relevant district and county councillors on the same day as it is sent to members.
- iv. Meetings will not take place in premises where alcohol is being served at the time of the meeting unless no other premises are available free of charge or at a reasonable cost.

2. Ordinary meeting agenda process

- i. The agenda for each ordinary meeting shall be drawn up by the clerk to ensure timely progression of planned business, statutory duties, new matters which require debate and the clerk's annual task list.
- ii. The clerk will send a draft agenda to the chairman for comment 14 days before each meeting. They must provide any comments to the clerk in good time to allow issue of the final agenda to all members seven days before the meeting.
- iii. Any member may request motions relevant to the meeting's responsibilities to be placed on the agenda. Subsequently, the member may request these motions to be amended or withdrawn. In all these cases, details, including wording of motions, must be provided to the clerk by email at least 10 days before the meeting. The clerk may discuss these motions with members to ensure appropriate wording. The clerk's decision on whether to include a motion on the agenda is final and should be made following discussion with the chairman.
- iv. Any papers required to accompany agenda items must be provided to the clerk for circulation a minimum of three calendar days before the meeting. However, every effort should be made to supply the papers before the agenda is circulated. This provision applies only to full council meetings due to the sometimes unpredictable timings relating to planning and environment committee business.

¹ In certain circumstances, a summons for an ordinary meeting may need to be issued more than seven days before a meeting to comply with legal requirements to make the summons at least three clear days before a meeting. The minimum three clear days for notice of a meeting does not include the day on which notice was issued, the day of the meeting, a Sunday, a day of the Christmas break, a day of the Easter break or of a bank holiday or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning.

3. The Annual Meeting

- i. The council's Annual Meeting will be in May other than in an election year when it will take place within 14 days of the newly-elected councillors taking office. The meeting will start at 7.30pm.
- ii. The first business conducted will be the election of the chairman and vice-chairman of the council. Unless they resign or are disqualified, they will remain in office until the next chairman is elected at the following year's Annual Meeting.
- iii. The chairman will preside at the Annual Meeting until a successor is elected. This includes election years where the chairman has not been re-elected as a member of the council.
- iv. The chairman must exercise a casting vote if votes for the new chairman are tied. In election years, this Standing Order applies even if the chairman has not been re-elected as a member of the council and is therefore ineligible to take part in the original vote.
- v. The chairman, and in an election year all councillors, must sign the acceptance of office form at the Annual Meeting unless the council resolves for this to be done at a later date.
- vi. Following the election of the council chairman and vice-chairman and signing of acceptance of office forms, the business of the annual meeting shall include:
 - a. Appointment of members to committees and review of committees' terms of reference;

- i. The chairman of the council or a committee may convene an extraordinary meeting at any time.
- ii. If the chairman of the council or a committee does not call an extraordinary meeting within seven days of a written request by two councillors, any two councillors may convene an extraordinary meeting. These councillors must sign the public notice for this meeting.
